Senior Class dedicates the 1977 ARIES

Ms. Dorinda Gannon is one of the youngest teachers ever to receive the Reavis yearbook Dedication. After only 5 years of teaching at Reavis, she has done so much for the students they feel she should be thanked in this way.

In her first year of teaching she took over the Russian Club, still wanting to contribute more in her next year, she headed the NHS and still continues to sponsor these two clubs.

Most know her best from the all-school musicals she directed. She directed the plays "Guys and Dolls," "Damn Yankees" and this year's "Once Upon a Mattress."

The Thespians who have worked with her say this about her, "She was one of the most helpful and fun to work with director ever." Ms. Gannon also acts in a theater group to better herself as a director.

She has done a lot for the students and we thank her with the 1977 Yearbook dedication.

Mr. Ken Bill, teacher, coach, and friend to many Reavis students, was voted to receive the 1977 yearbook dedication by the senior class.

Besides teaching film study and science fiction, the years before this class saw him teaching English I, II, and creative writing he also served as speech coach.

Along with teaching, he has also sponsored the boys' and girls' tennis teams, bringing both to conference victories and bringing a doubles team to State for 2 years. Team members describe him in this way:

"His humor has inspired us in moments of defeat and joined us in the joys of victory; his dedication is reflected in our achievements."

He was thanked for his inspiring coaching in 1976 as he was named Coach of the year.

friends whether it be two students, a teacher and a student, a coach and a student, or any other combination, each person gives a part of himself—a part that is filled with caring, sharing, and understanding, and as these friends part, whether it be because of graduation or summer vacation, each person loses a part of himself.

This year, there seemed to be fewer cliques and more of a sense of oneness. The stereotypes started to slip away as students and teachers shared feelings of pride at sports events, fun at activities, and ideas in classes. Persons gave a part of themselves to be FRIENDS.

Burbank, Ill. has a population at present of 35,000, 3,000 or so attend it's only public high school-Reavis.

Reavis and Burbank have done a lot for each other. The director of student activities, Mr. Fitzgerald, is also the Mayor of Burbank. Many students are employed at the plentiful places of business, one of which doubles as the most popular student hang out.

McDonald's is located at 87th street near Harlem Ave. After most home football games our friends there pledged free food in exchange for ticket stubs after victorious Ram games, giving our team incentive to win.

Reavis smiles reflect friendly way

Whether it be a pep rally, football game or just everyday student life, friends bring out the best of us. They bring a laugh to our hearts and a special togetherness which lets unity and spirit prevail at Reavis. Friends turn our friendly ways into happy days and memories to last a lifetime.

ACTIVITIES

"Activities"- a word that encompasses the school year's spectrum of multicolored strands, starting with the excitement of homecoming and friendships renewed, continued and strengthened. School loyalties are brought to the various sporting events.

School plays are chosen, cast and performed to charmed audiences in the spring and fall, crowned with the annual "Musical"! Before the last shovel of snow is forgotten it seems, it's time to rejoice in the rites of spring with the Jr. picnic and to the bittersweet joy of the Sr. picnic knowing it's the last one shared with good FRIENDS of many years standing. Graduation-the long awaited, anticipated, worked for day, the grand finale to years of study and forging bonds of friendship to last a lifetime.

A body of bored bleacher based students assembled in the main gym last May, while more than fifty awards were presented to Reavis students.

Although many students squirmed in their seats, the friends of award recipients clapped, screamed, and gave standing ovations.

Doris M. Szymanski and Judy Szeraj were named co-valedictorians. Paula A. Mikrut, was named salutatorian. The girls said they achieved the honor by setting their goals high and working hard.

DAMN YANKEES HITS HOME RUN

The fans and spectators were hushed as the house lights came down. A spotlight slashed a brilliant path through the darkness, illuminating Andrew McCutcheon, director of the orchestra, who wooed the spectators with a compelling overture.

Damn Yankees, the all-school musical held last May, told the story of an old baseball fanatic, Joe Boyd, who sells his soul to the devil in exchange for the loss at the New York Yankees chance at the pennant. Joe Boyd there upon becomes Joe Hardy, a young baseball player on the Washington Senators, who rank as a last place team.

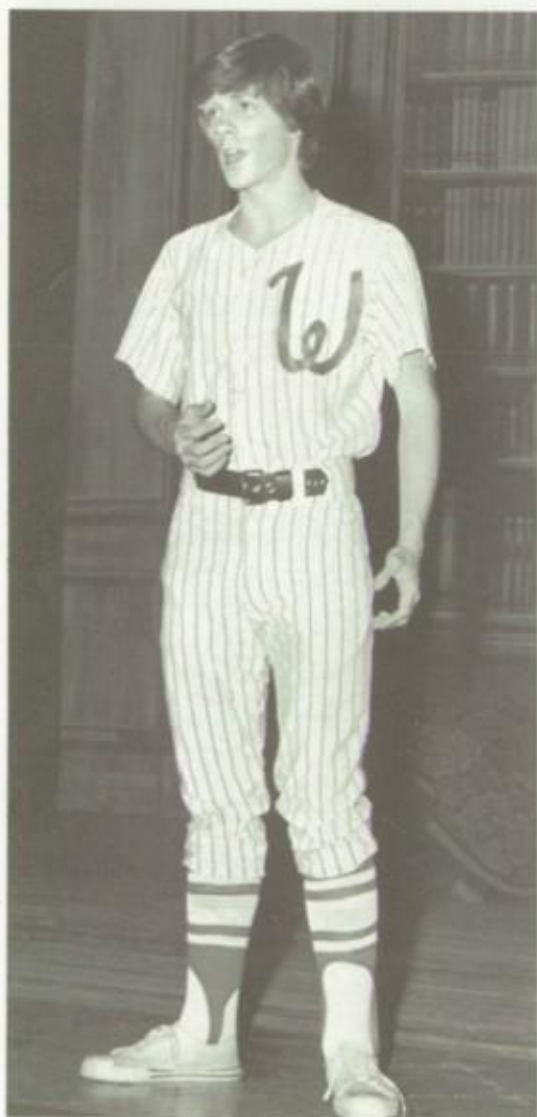

Joe leads his team onto victory, but finds that he'd rather be back home with his wife, then have the fame glory of being a super-star. Joe Hardy out wits Applegate (the devil) and manages to have him return to his former identity of Joe Boyd who returns to his faithful wife Meg.

The starting line-up included: Meg Boyd (Doubled by Debie Bulow and Carol Lovelace), Joe Boyd (Rex Givens), Applegate (Gil Oliva), Joe Hardy (Pat Tieri), Gloria (Patty Masterson), Lola (Mary Ann Cain), Van Buren (Ron Shapiro).

Two bands featured at prom

One of the oldest traditions of our school is the Junior and Senior Prom.

Originally, only Juniors and Seniors could attend Prom. The 1974 Student Council authorized Sophomores to attend only if one of the couple is a Junior or Senior.

The prom was held in the Grand Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton Hotel in mid-May. Prom featured two bands. One band, Dick Carlton's Orchestra of eleven pieces played ballroom and fifties music, and "Choice" played the latest rock tunes.

The evening included a seven course formal dinner followed by three and one-half hours of dancing. Prom-goers were dressed in their formal best and had an opportunity to have portraits taken so as to cherish the memories.

Picnic: peanuts, popcorn, pop

Frisbees, eggs, and high spirits all came together last May at Aerie Crown Woods to provide the background for the 1976 graduating Seniors' picnic.

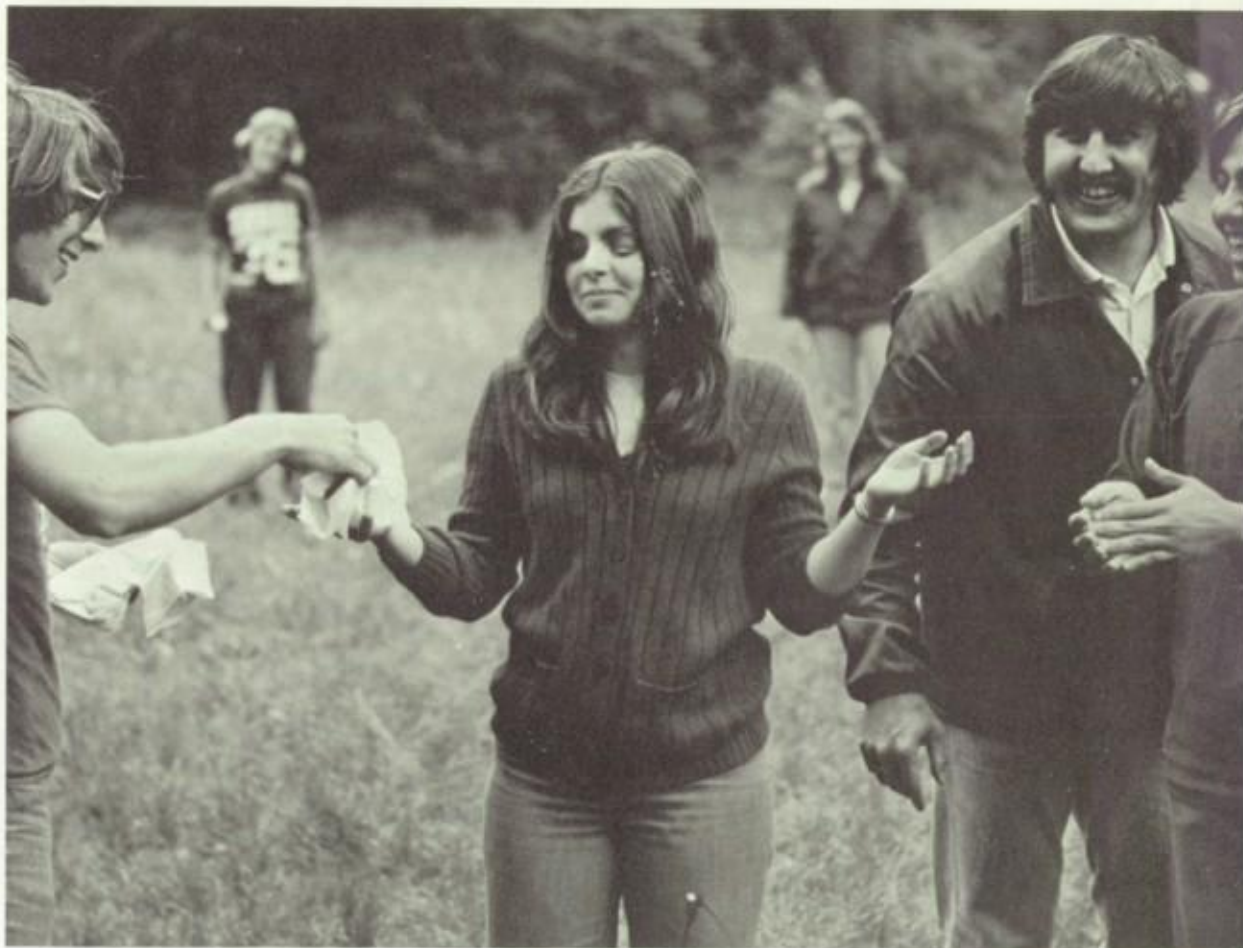

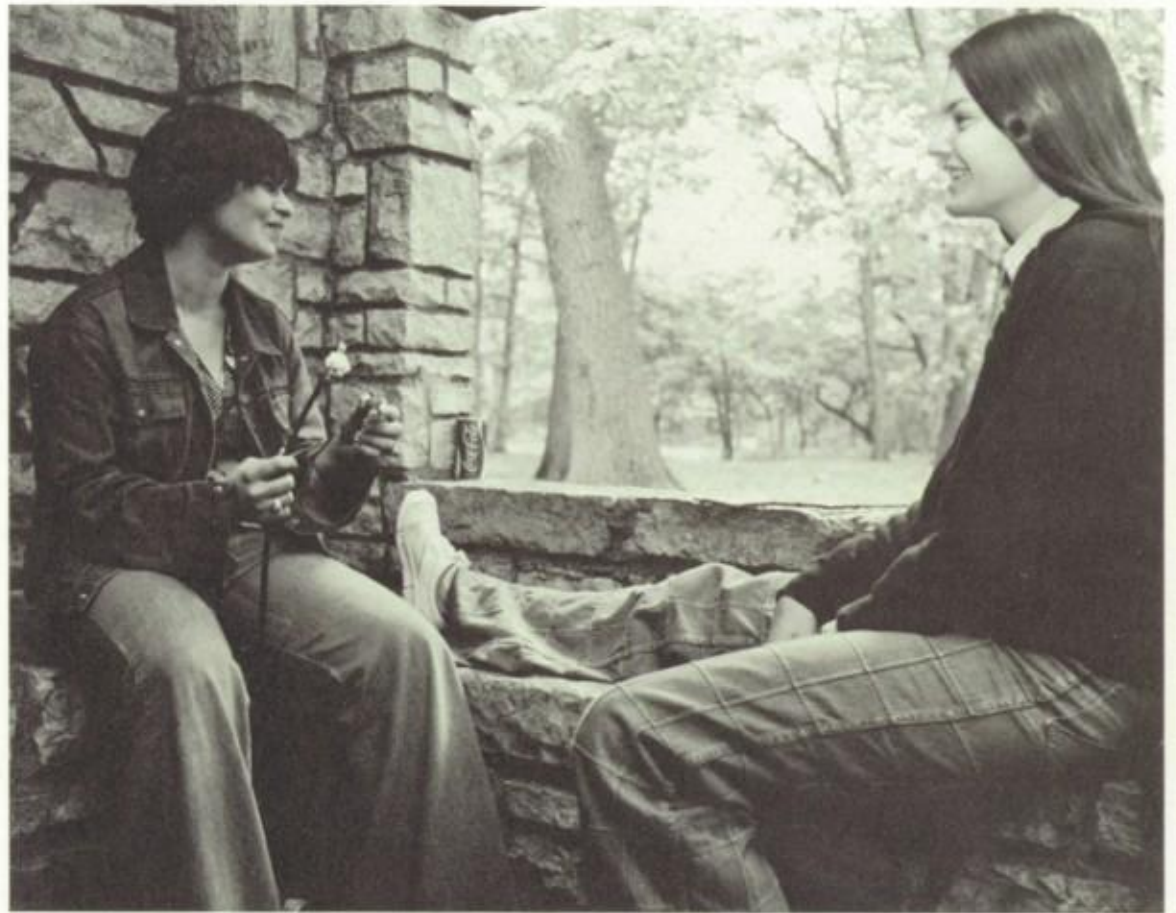

The day was spent eating, being rowdie, and simply enjoying the friends and classmates who gathered around for the last big get-together of the Senior class.

The picnic was arranged by Mr. Klein and the Senior class officers.

Strasser, Depa awarded Hickory Sticks

Ellen Strasser and Steve Depa on June 3, 1976 were presented with the traditional Hickory Stick award for being best "all-around" students.

Being the Bicentennial graduating class, the Seniors wore a red, white, and blue sash over the traditional navy and white gowns.

The band and chorus said final farewells to their graduating seniors in band and chorus by playing songs and singing. The moods of the graduating seniors were portrayed by the band playing "The Way We Were" and chorus singing "This Is My Country" and "All To Soon".

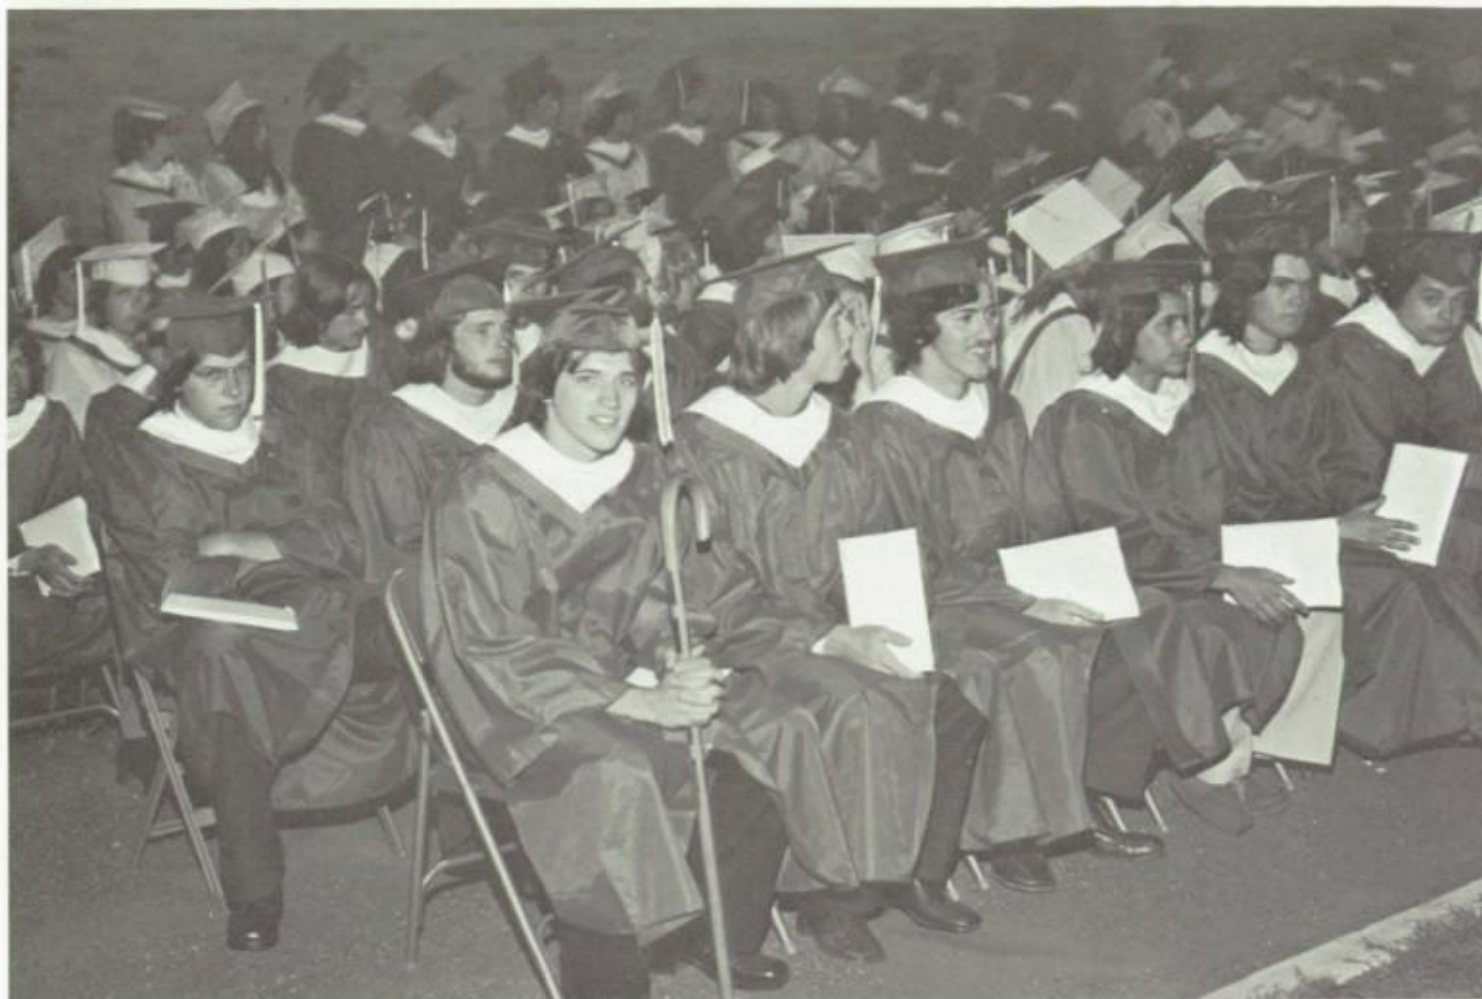

Mr. Fitzgerald, Mr. Hayton, Mr. Schultz, Mr. Williams, Mr. Savage, Mr. Poole and Pastor Peters were present to hand out diplomas, and congratulate the class of 76.

Homecoming: pep session, parade, victory

The step off of the parade begins shortly. Clubs are assembling and adding final touches along with last inspections to their floats. A pulsating beat is heard in the distance as the Marching Rams begin school song. People crowd on corners with cameras in hand ready for the bright and attractive floats and clubs to parade by. Judges walk beside floats checking for originality, sturdiness, and neatness while the fire engines sound the step off of the parade. Hearts and spirits of family and friends are warm in the chilly morning as the parade passes by. Within an hour, the stands were packed. The Rams came out looking ready for a rough bout with the warriors. Don Petrocious, Mickey Pastwa, Jeff Sprayberry, and Eric Pryde were the big scorers of the game leading us to a victory of RAMS 27, Crete Monee 6. During halftime the winning floats were announced. They were, in class B competition, Art Service League first place, and in class A competition, the Band float.

"Under Papa's Picture" captivates full house

"Under Papa's Picture" the fall play, opened to full houses on both nights of performance. The play was set in the living room of an upper class familys' large California home, where the owner of the house, a striving young executive, John O'Connell (Steve Tieri), struggles to gain seniority in a large company. His family consists of his wife Janice (Kathy Nitz), who attempts to dissuade John from his total absorbtion in his work, his son Kevin (Gary Gow), who finds his dreams in the flames of a fireplace, his pregnant (unwed) mother Grace (Carol Lovelace), his mother's lover-Fabrizio Bustamente (Gil Oliva), and Father Mitchell (Tony Wetterer) their priest who keeps a careful watch over the O'Connells.

Winter band concert: A Musical experience

The night is filled with enthusiasm. The audience is getting situated while the freshmen band warms up on stage. Three trumpet soloists Frank Gayda, Jim Rokiatis, and Anthony Douglas are featured in a fanfare preceding the freshmen band and in the first number of the evening - 'Bugler's Holiday'. Following the freshmen, was the concert band performing the masterpiece "Victory At Sea" featuring trumpet soloist Greg Coate. The bands were under the direction of Andrew McCutcheon.

Choirs give exceptional performance

The choirs performed their first concert on December 12. The combined choirs gave an exceptional performance in the singing of the Cantata, "The Night the Angels Sang" under the direction of Ray Bialek. The choirs were accompanied at the piano by Debie Bulow and narrator Kris Salamone. Mr. Bialek commented, "The concert choir plus the freshmen choir did a splendid job in the singing of traditional and contemporary Christmas music. The Christmas concert was a successful musical experience."

Vocations planned at Career Day

There were over fifty career representatives present in the main gym last October to talk to and guide students interested in securing a good job after they graduate from high school. Students used that hour to gather information about different vocations and to talk with representatives. Some of the students got together to talk with friends and to walk around without saying anything to the professionals in their field of work.

Top Right: "It was very interesting to find out what we needed to know about our career," states Sue Wyleta and Nancy Aspin as they talk to Ronald Harrigan from Trans World Airlines.

Left Center: "I don't really know what I'm going to go into" is the expressed opinion of Debbie Kelly as she and Greg Danhoff discuss possibilities of careers.

Right Center: Dawn Bauml and Kim Du-bois feel that Career Day was much better and helpful than last year's Career Day as they get information from the representative from Commonwealth Edison Co.

Lower Right: Marcie K., Chris K., Linda E., and Joanne D. find time for humor in their discussion with the representative from Burbank State Bank.

'Twigs': catches moods of life, love, and women

The spring play "Twigs," directed by Mr. Mark Beavers, was a play about a woman and her three daughters. The music of Burt Bacharach and Judy Collins was added to explore the moods of life, love and women. The scene "Celia" was the contest play about a pitiful woman abused by her husband. The men in "Twigs" were Frank, Phil, and Pa (Ron Shapiro), Jose (Gil Oliva), Lou (George Smith), Ned (Steve Tieri), and Father Riley (Tim Sharas). Emile, Celia, Dorothy and Ma were portrayed by Kris Salamone. The theme of "Twigs" was "Just as the twig is bent, the tree's inclined."

Making "FRIENDS" and keeping them occurs within many of the school activities at Reavis. Clubs, organizations, and groups are just a few of the activities where lasting friendships begin.

A group or organization consists of interested students and an involved sponsor.

R.O.T.C. team takes first in Regional Drill Meet

The AFJ-ROTC Squadron IL-81 boasts a champion 16 man co-ed Drill Team. It has taken first place for three consecutive years in the Great Lakes Regional Drill Meet in Wheeling, Ill. Other victories include a first place in the 1976 Lafayette H.S. drill meet held in Baldwin, Mo., and a first place award in the 1976 Argo H.S. drill meet. The team has also performed at the Burbank County Fair, RAP meetings, and several local parades including the Burbank Bicentennial Parade.

The ROTC members made their annual trips to O'Hare Airport, the Illinois Air National Guard, and the Chanute AFB. These trips gave cadets the opportunity to see some of the different careers open to them.

N.H.S. goes country

The National Honor Society went country all the way when its members partook in a real down-home style hayride. The evening at Acorn Ridge Park started out with a hoedown in the Grand Ballroom. Apple cider and a wienie roast around an open fire followed the hour-long hayride. Laughs and song concluded the night's escapades as the last of the marshmallows were toasted.

Junior Honor Society goes to Candlelight Dinner Playhouse

During November, 25 Junior Honor Society members went to the Candlelight. They viewed a Neill Simon comedy, "God's Favorite", starring Ray Rayner.

Members participated in candy sales to raise enough money for their outing. They came up with funds to supplant half of its cost.

Dennis Collado, president of the J.H.S., planned more activities for the club than ever before. Other group functions include tobogganning and seeing the play "The Wiz".

In addition to club pins, sweat-shirts were made available for the Honor Society members. This started a new tradition for the group.

Blueprint lets students know what's going on

Numerous discussions, the tapping of the typewriter, creative minds, interviews, comedy and satire, the will of the students to know what's going on in their city and school. These are all vital elements of the Blueprint. It's staff is made up of three sections: news, features, and sports. These sections combine to make the newspaper both enjoyable and informative.

Freshmen give Chess Club new spirit

The Chess Club was involved in tournaments sponsored by SICA. The top seven players of the group participated with schools city-wide. The team has much improved over last year, with the majority of its members made up of freshmen. With such strong players involved early in their years at Reavis, the Chess club looks forward to a first place team next year.

Computer Club builds two computers

Reavis had a new club join its staff; the Computer Club. Sponsored by Mr. Bianco, its purpose is to familiarize members to the construction and function of the computer. The club has proceeded to build and program two computers owned by Mr. Bianco. This year it has pooled together all of its funds to invest in a computer that will be built and used for the school.

Aquatic Arts gets new sponsors

Ms. Yates and Mrs. Vitiritti had a very impressive first year of coaching the Aquatic Arts Club. Even though they were inexperienced in the beginning weeks, they have both lead and encouraged the girls through an outstanding season.

The girls took an immediate liking to their new sponsors and showed pride in their club. "We enjoy it more because we work harder ... there's more participation."

Reavis Guard makes splash with younger set

Five years ago, our city of Burbank had no swimming program that was open to the community. Then came the birth of the Reavis Guard. Supervised by Mr. Everetts and Mr. Ryan, the Guards' principal goal is to make children water safe. Although this swimming program is offered to all elementary school students, it mainly attracts children between the ages of four and ten. "Hopefully," said Ryan, "this type of program will benefit Reavis with a better swim team..."

Guard Ray Bohenak says "I like teaching the kids, I get a good feeling when I know the kids have learned something from me ... I feel like I'm giving something to the school and the community."

The students of the program learn everything from holding their breaths under water to life-saving. They enjoy being taught by high school instructors. As to their thoughts about the program, the thirty pupils interviewed summed it up in two words, "IT'S FUN!"

Nitz, Tinnish, Christensen elected youth officials

Reavis's Youth and Government delegation got three of four major candidates elected for political office. Kathy Nitz, Sue Tinnish and Rich Christensen were the victors. Nitz was elected as Youth Governor, Tinnish as President of the Senate and Christensen as Speaker of the House.

All three candidates won by large margins. After winning the preliminary district election, they proceeded downstate in March to compete with Youth and Government members from all over Illinois. The election was at Morgan Park Academy where the second pre-legislative session was held.

The group went to Springfield to participate in a weekend of governmental simulation, presenting bills to be passed before the Senate and the House.

TEAMWORK

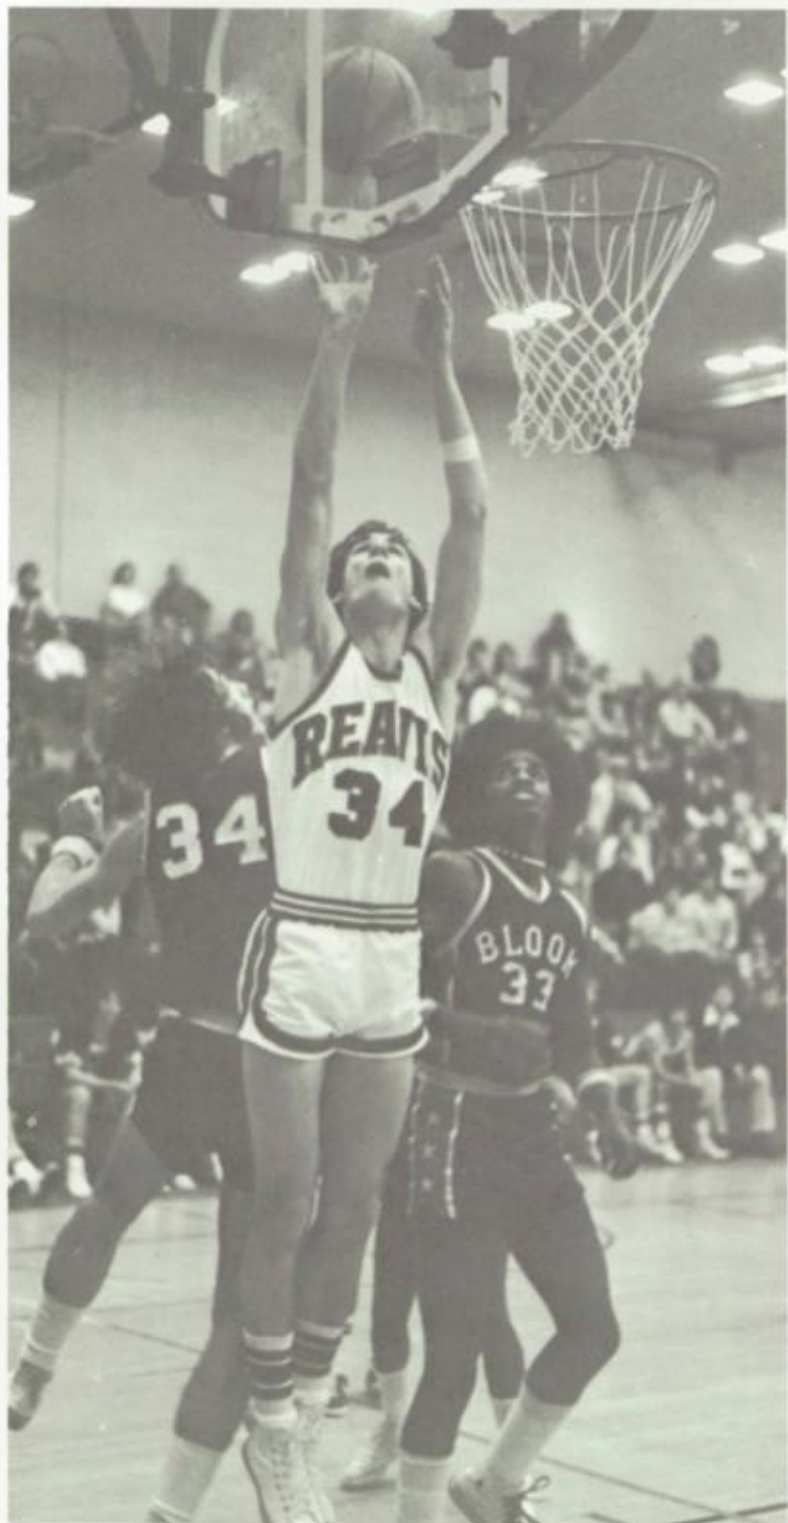

The 1976-1977 sports season has ended, with honor, many goals accomplished, and memories of one of the biggest years for sports' victories in Reavis' history. All the sports were put together with people who were willing to help each other, work with each other, and most of all, care for each other. To make a school like Reavis and to be proud that you belong to it, you must have FRIENDS.

MENS' TRACK

Runnin Rams make Reavis history

Placing eight out of 18 schools in the Palatine Meet, second in Conference, and seventh in District competition, the Rams succeeded in finishing the highest in the schools' history. Three records were set by Wally Ayres: in the High Jump 6'4", Triple Jump 44'2", and scoring the most points in a Varsity season. Also, to highlight the season, the two-mile relay team qualified to go down state with a time of 8:16.2. The team consisted of Jose Pinto, George Maher, Dan Sukel, and Rick St. Paul.

VARSITY BASEBALL

Reavis Rams '76 district champs; eight players named all-conference

The '76 Sluggin Rams captured their third straight S.I.C.A. West Conference Crown with an undefeated record (9-0). The Rams also won their third straight District Crown by shutting out Stagg (2-0) and by out slugging Oak Lawn (8-6). The Rams Regional encounter saw Reavis leading in the sixth inning, only to have Morton West come up with four runs and go on to win (4-1). The Varsity's overall record was 21 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie; a Rams record for wins. Another record set this year was the placing of eight boys on the All-Conference Team. These boys were Rich Cook and Ralph Sabatino pitchers, Ron Czarnecki, Bill White, and Tom Mendez infielders, Rich Zemovich and Dave Tadla outfielders, and Joe Padalok catcher.

Rams' conference entry (9-0)

The 1976 Freshmen Rams were 15-5-1 overall and swept their conference with a perfect (9-0) record. It was the first time the Freshmen had ever gone undefeated in conference play. This was a well-rounded ball club with a hard hitting attack, speed on the bases, and solid defense and pitching.

KITTEN BALL

A Team conference score 5-6

The Reavis Ram's A Team gave it almost everything they had to give. The team finished the season with a record of 7 wins and 7 losses. The girls placed five out of six in conference. Reavis came ahead in two of three games in the tournament, only to have Morton East come with a three point lead to win against Reavis at the last and third game of the tourney.

Cathy Ratel was named Most Valuable player.

B Team record 6 wins-2 losses

The Rams Softball B Team was comprised of nine Sophomore and thirteen Freshmen girls who worked as a unit in winning six out of eight games. The mighty hitters averaged 20 runs per game, while allowing 12 runs to the opponents. Our pitching staff of Mucerino and Moneta allowed five earned runs per game. Hitters Reynolds, Forsyth, and Kalkowski had averages above .500. Most Valuable was Laura Reynolds, catcher, Most Contributions Thea Mucerino, pitcher, and Most Improved Donna Sansone, utility fielder.

Diamantopoulos All-American

Jim Diamantopoulos born in Greece and moved to this country in 1970. He started running X-country in his sophomore year, never having run before. He proceeded from there to also run track and in 1976 was given the honors of All-American by the Hummer publication on the East coast. Senior year in X-country he was fifth in the conference and elected co-captain and most valuable runner for Reavis X-country team.

MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

Varsity finishes 3rd in conference

Varsity was 3rd in conference and did very respectable in all the invationals they competed in. They had a dual meet record of 7-2. The top seven runners were Jim Diamantopoulos, Greg Danhoff, Dave Dougherty, Gary Doyle, Chris Oldanie, Rick St. Paul, and Mike Haller. Timewise this was the fastest team ever at Reavis High. Captains were Greg Danhoff and Jim Diamantopoulos. Most Valuable Player was Jim Diamantopoulos and Most Improved was Greg Danhoff.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Fighting Rams attempt State

The Reavis Fighting Rams went into the season with high intentions and great goals. In the end they proved to themselves and their school that they were more than a bunch of little boys playing for fun. The Rams fought hard for the title of UNDEFEATED CONFERENCE CHAMPS, which gave them the chance for state. We were to play Glenbard West, one of the best Illinois football teams, in the state playoffs. It was a defeat for the Rams, but they made it that far and we were all very proud of them. There were six men named All Conference. On Offense: Eric Pryde, Don Petrosius, and Mike Fahey. Defense: Mickey Pastwa, Rick Shipbaugh, and Cyril Czopek. Eric Pryde was also named ALL-AREA.

Compete against past record

The season was a season that began with high expectations after a very successful freshmen year. "Unfortunately the sophomore year was not as good as we could like," Coaches said. "We wish that the season had been more successful in wins and losses but were pleased with the experience the team gained." Several team members played extremely well under some conditions that were not ideal; some of the more experience players were put on Varsity, which made the Sophomores work even harder. The team never quit, overcame many adversities, and ended the season with a very respectable 6-2-1 record.

Second-District Conference

Judy Raziunas and Linda Blackwell placed second in districts and conference. These girls were the first girls in Reavis history to qualify for state, which was held October 29-30. In the first round play-offs, against Elmhurst, they were knocked out losing 6-3, 6-1, but they still put on a fine performance. The captains for the '76 season were Angie Benedia and Donna Forsyth. Most Valuable went to Linda Blackwell, Most Contributions went to Karen Anderson, and Most Improved went to Jackie Vervoort.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Winning Start

The Reavis Rams Girls' Varsity Basketball team got off to a promising start winning four of their first six ballgames. The 1976-77 Varsity team consists of four seniors, five juniors, and three sophomores. Co-captains of the Varsity team Angie Benedia and Sharon Ward. The Junior-Varsity team had a season of rebuilding as most of their players were inexperienced.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

The sophomore team showed great improvement through the season, and several players should be able to contribute to next year's varsity team. Of the sophomore team's 12 losses, 6 were by six points or less, and 2 of those losses came in overtime games. The Rams reached the tournament semifinals by beating St. Agnatus and Lemont. The Rams also finished with a Conference record of 6-6.

MEN'S WRESTLING

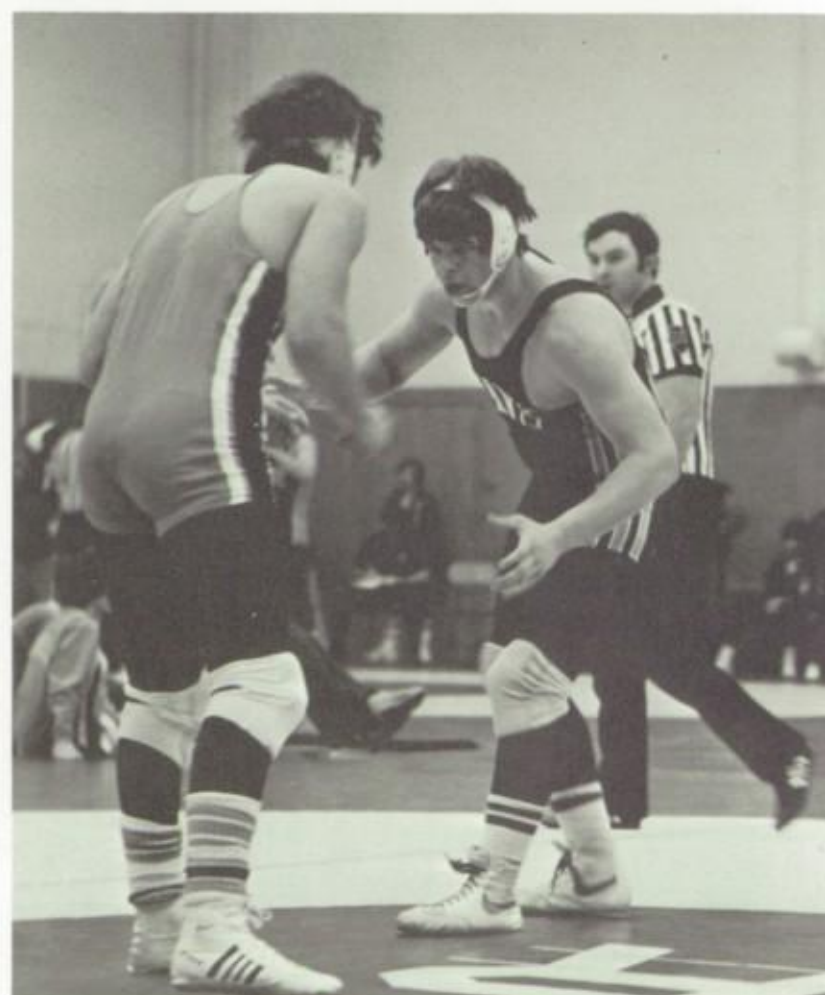

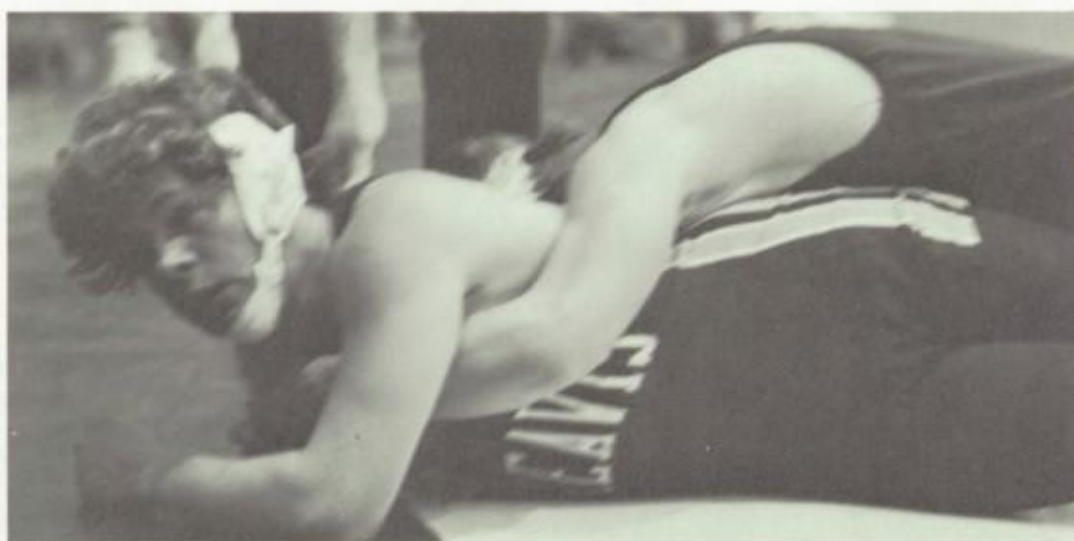

Won 7 - lost 6 - tied 2

"This years wrestling Ram varsity was somewhat of an illusion. Looking unbeatable on paper they had ups and downs all season, looking great one day and completely out of it the next," Coach Bob Moser said. "All in all the season was not disappointing however. We were in every meet with all of the teams and that's not bad considering we wrestled two freshmen, three sophmores, and three juniors every meet. I have to feel it was mainly due to two outstanding senior captains, Don Asplund and Tim Kelly. They really got the team up mentally for the meets."

DEBORAH GRETCHOKOFF

Seniors speak out

Lower Left: Joe Wojcik, voted Most Radical, gave us his views of Reavis, the people, and how it could improve. "The people at Reavis in general are brain-washed. They go through the day not knowing whether they are coming or going. Some just don't want to make waves and get in trouble, others are totally out of it.

There are some beautiful people, and I'm glad to have met them. The school hasn't benefited me, but the experience has helped me to mature. Thanks to Frank Klein for all he's done." Joe suggested, "Don't tell the students what to do, but tell them why, and let them make their own decisions. Give the students more freedom. Have the teacher's teach, not rule. Everyone should be on the same level. The grading system should be pass or fail only."

Below: Mike Danielski, voted Mr. School Spirit, told us what he thought of Reavis, it's students and how it could improve. "The students at Reavis are friendly and easy to get along with. The teachers do their jobs well and prepare you for today's world and how to succeed.

School Spirit has improved since I have been here at Reavis thanks to Ms. Janecyk. Reavis is a good school and has a lot to offer.

My years at Reavis have been a lot of fun. I would improve Reavis by letting the Seniors have an hour lunch and freedom to leave the grounds.

about years at Reavis

Debbie Kelly, Senior Class President said, "Reavis is a place where a lot of kids grow up. It's a place where friends are made and the start of long lasting friendships begin. These past 4 years were a great experience. Many of the kids don't realize how the teachers and administration try to better Reavis for us. Those who don't understand will in the future. I'll never forget Reavis or the people within it. When I entered Reavis I wanted to be a part of Reavis and I wanted my 4 years to be something I would never forget. I hope that through the student council I have contributed many ideas and different thoughts to improve our class and future classes. I feel Reavis is a great school; I wish the incoming classes much luck. Reavis is only what the students make it.

The Senior Breakfast was probably the last time this large of a group of Seniors was all together before graduation. The group of Seniors enjoyed themselves and just had a good time being together in the early morning.

Administration works under new head,

1976 introduced a new Reavis superintendent as Mr. Donald Klusendorf accepted the position from retiring Bernard Hayton. Mr. Klusendorf has been involved with Reavis for a number of years, working in the Drivers' Education program and in public relations.

In his first year as head administrator, Mr. Klusendorf supervised several building changes; established a more "Community-minded" school, and helped to open student-administration communications.

THIS YEAR . . .

As another year comes to an end the traditional remembering of the year is anticipated by the arrival of our yearbook. Being on the staff for three year brought even more excitement as each year I could hear the compliments (and complaints) of my fellow students.

I can't really say it was all a bundle of joy; I'm sure the other staff members will agree with me. It was hard work and a lot of pressure, we had to work along with many people who were at times uncooperative and a student body all wanting an on time and low-priced book, but not fully understanding how difficult that seemingly simple task of producing a perfect yearbook can be.

The '77 staff worked through ups and downs all year to make the ARIES what it is—one of our best! Sure there is a fact or two missing, a photo blurred, or someone's name misspelled, none done intentionally. We sincerely apologize to those directly involved but making this book one of the best was our intention at the beginning and I'm proud to say we pulled it through with the help of each other. Thanks to everyone that helped and to Ms. Kopach for keeping me moving and putting up with the whole project. Remember the good times and it'll all be worth it. Thanks everyone, Becky Wenk-Editor-In-Chief.
